wobble

I knew she'd be perseverant, but eating liquid food all the time is probably not enjoyable... I might need to get her dentures... I also wonder if she has any internal damage... And the progression of necrosis on her limbs is concerning, too.

tremble

Is it too cold...? No, maybe too hot... Hmm... Wait...

OH!

Squirm

Squirm

TREMBLE

TREMBLE...

Battling my sleepiness, I fed Reszurre dinner. She started trembling in the middle of it, which made me worried at first, but then I realized that, in my obsession with her scars, I completely forgot about her basic needs and made her hold it in for two whole days.

thud

Zzz...

Zzz...

There is always the option of using a high potion, which recovers the body physically in exchange for reducing the user's lifespan due to the sudden increase in metabolism... But, with my current equipment and knowledge, it would be quite... Ah... My arms feel.....
